Circuits, LLC Celebrates Grand Opening

Well-wishers gather to share food, wine and experience the unique fabricating facility

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MURRYSVILLE, PA – September 18, 2009 – Circuits, LLC, a manufacturer of highly reliable flexible printed circuit boards held its Grand Opening Event yesterday, September 17 at their Murrysville facility. Members of the Westmoreland Chamber of Commerce and Murrysville Mayor Joyce Somers presided over the ribbon cutting ceremony that kicked off the event.

Though the official Grand Opening celebration took place in September 2009, the company was actually founded in August 2008. Most of the past year was spent renovating the 50,000 sq ft facility and readying the company for business. Circuits' has been in full production since June 2009.

Adeodato Vigano, founder and president of Circuits, had a few words to say about the company, its employees and his vision for Circuits. He considered himself fortunate to be "surrounded by people who, in uncertain economic times, had the courage to start something new.” Adeodato thanked each employee by name and closed with his bright hopes for a prosperous future.

Nearly 80 guests attended the event, including members of the Westmoreland Chamber of Commerce, Circuits’ customers, vendors and others who have contributed to Circuits’ founding. The guests enjoyed a lavish buffet of appetizers provided by Elegant Tents & Catering and a wine tasting presented by Walnut Hill Winery. The evening’s activities also included facility tours and conversation around a visual timeline of Circuits’ transformation.
