Circuits, LLC increases Sales presence across East Coast

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 4, 2010, Murrysville, PA, Circuits, LLC, a manufacturer of highly reliable flexible printed circuit boards, announced today the addition of two Business Development Managers to increase their sales presence across the Eastern USA territories.

Ed Trocki, an accomplished regional sales and business development professional will be leading the sales effort throughout the New England states. Located in the Boston area, Ed has developed relationships with key military, medical and industrial control companies throughout the North East. Ed held the position of Regional Director of Sales at Sager Electronics prior to joining Circuits. Ed's entire career has been electronics-focused; he is an accomplished business professional and successfully started and ran his own full-service electronic component distribution company for nearly 20 years. Ed holds a master of Business Administration in Marketing and a BS in Business.

Wilson Coffman will be heading up business development in the South East. Based in Huntsville, Alabama, Wilson has had a tremendous record of success throughout his career in the PCB and electronics industry. He has held executive sales and business development positions with Devtek, AT&S, Total Circuits, and Flextronics. Wilson is a committed and customer-oriented professional who brings a broad range of expertise to our team. With a degree in Marketing from the University of Alabama, Wilson has continued to expand the breadth of his knowledge through continued education on topics such as RoHS, HDI Technology certification, ISO and SPC, as well as Quality Management courses.

"We are very excited to have found both Wilson and Ed. They are both very committed to providing personal attention to each client and I'm sure they will exceed our client's expectations. They are a welcome addition to our growing team" said Lori Vidra, Vice President at Circuits.
